COMMENCEMENT

How Life Beckons to the Sweet Girl Graduate This Year

Class of Nineteen Hundred Eighteen

Third Annual Commencement Exercises

Coronado High School

on Friday evening, June twenty-first

at eight o'clock

School Auditorium

The High School graduates have been envied ones the past week, being feted with launch parties, dinners, banquets, class plays and all the frills that go to show the young men and women that they better have a good time now, 'cause there is much work ahead.

One evening last week a launch party, with members of the Junior and Senior classes, was rolling along on the moonlit bay, when Clarence Fifield, desiring a box of candy that was in the other end of the launch, walked along the rail, allowed his foot to slip, and went overboard. The rest of the party had a hard time getting Clarence back into the boat. Needless to say, he was somewhat moist.

SENIOR'S CLASS PLAY

The seniors of the High school will present their class play Wednesday evening, June 19. The play selected is "The House Next Door," a comedy in three acts, and will be presented at the school auditorium. It is under the direction of Miss Platt. The play abounds in amusing incidents, and the following cast has practiced hard to make it a success:

Sir John.....Albert Madden
Lady Margaret.....Esther Berger
Ulrica.....Marie Holt
Cecil.....John Sykes
Vining, the servant..Mitchell Lukens
Hon. Capt. Trevor.....Leslie Young

Jacobson family—

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Largest Class of Students Ever Graduated from High School

"Leland Johns, Minard Douglass Perrin, Sidney Sletto, John Pierce Sykes, Paul August Koppe, Ella Adell Eaton, Beernice Marie Holt, Mary Theodora Howe, Esther Vandewater Berger, Albert Edward Madden, Clarence Chester Fifield, stand up! You are about to be presented with a real honest-to-goodness sheepskin, to show that you have satisfactorily completed the course of studies in the Coronado High school."

Something like the above will be heard at the schoolhouse next week, when the graduating exercises of the high school are held in the auditorium. It is called Commencement Week, because it is the commencement of work for the students. Anyway, Coronado students are right on the job this week, and not striking nor arguing nor anything, so whichever way you feel about the San Diego muddle, you can come to the exercises next Friday evening, June 21, and see as fine a class of handsome young students as ever left an Alma Mater.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be preached next Sunday evening by Rev. Berger, at the Presbyterian church. A union service will be held. and all the public is invited to attend.

Wednesday evening the Senior class play, "The House Next Door,' 'will be given. It ought to be good, if the work that those taking part have put into it is in anything to judge by.

Thursday and Friday afternoon, and Friday evening an exhibition of Domestic Science, Manual Training and Art Work in the auditorium and school rooms, will be held. The public, especially parents, are invited to come and see what the children have done during the school year. The exhibition will open your eyes.

Friday afternoon and Saturday evening open house will be the program, and the public is cordially invited to come then, too.

Friday evening, Commencement Night, will be the big doings. Then the eleven students who are to graduate, will be the stars of the evening. Dr. Lincoln A. Ferris, pastor of the M. E. church, San Diego, will deliver the address, his subject being "The Quest." Dr. Ferris is an interesting and forceful speaker.

The week's program will bring to a fitting close the Coronado school days of the graduates, who comprise the third graduating class of the Coronado High school.

Coronado High School Students To Present 'The House Next Door'

Scene From "The House Next Door," which will be presented by the senior class of the Coronado high school Wednesday night.

"The House Next Door" will be presented by the senior class of the Coronado high school Wednesday afternoon as the annual play, in the auditorium of the school, E avenue. Those taking part in the cast will be: Jack Young, Leslie Young, John Sykes, Esther Berger, Ella Eaton, Marie Holt, Theodore Howe, Clarence Wyfield, Mitchell Lukens and Sidney Sletto. The members of the class say they have a fine organization in this cast and that they can offer an excellent portrayal of this well known play. They have been coached by Miss Pratt, a member of the faculty.

"THE HOUSE NEXT DOOR"

The Senior Class play, "The House Next Door," delighted a large and intelligent audience at the school on Wednesday evening. As Wednesday evening is the big night for the editor, it was necessary for him to enlist the aid of the dramatic critic, who attended, and reported that the acting of the actors was good in all respects, and that Mary Theodora Howe and Albert Madden were especially good in their parts. Albert made a big hit, and the dramatic critic says he has a big future ahead of him, if he wants to go into the movies or the legit.

It was necessary to wait till darkness fell before starting the play, as at 8 o'clock the electric lights made no impression. The stage manager acquitted himself with honors in providing scenery and props.

The show lasted till 11:45, and everybody stayed till it was over, showing that our actors are "there."

EXERCISES HELD

The graduating exercises of the Coronado high school last evening were witnessed by a large audience of parents and friends of the members of the class. The class speaker, Minard Douglass Perrin, whose subject was "The School and Democracy," displayed marked oratorical ability, and was enthusiastically applauded. The commencement address, "The Quest," was by the Rev. Lincoln A. Ferris of San Diego, and was a rare combination of pathos and humor, combined with excellent advice forcefully presented. Supervising Principal W. A. Pratt of the school spoke eloquently, and President A. W. Bush of the board was in his element in telling funny anecdotes and reminiscences preparatory to presenting the diplomas to the young people of the graduating class. Miss Mary Theodora Howe was given first rank in scholarship, and Clarence Chester Fifield the second rank. The other graduates were Leland Johns, Ella Adell Eaton, Minard D. Perrin, Sidney Sletto, Bernice Marie Holt, John Pierce Sykes, Esther Vandewater Berger, Paul August Koppe, Albert Edward Madden.

Responsive Reading, Psalm 19

Minister: The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament showeth his handywork.

People: Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night showeth knowledge.

Minister: There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard.

People: Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun.

Minister: Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

People: His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it; and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

Minister: The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

People: The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

Minister: The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

People: More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Minister: Moreover by them is th y servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

People: Who can understand his errors? Cleanse thou me from secret faults.

Minister: Keep back they servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me; then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

People: Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

HYMNS

O God, beneath Thy guiding hand,
Our exiled fathers crossed the sea;
And when they trod the wintry strand,
With prayer and psalm they worshipped Thee.

Thou heard'st, well pleased, the song, the prayer:
Thy blessing came; and still its power
Shall onward, through all ages, bear
The memory of that holy hour.

And here Thy Name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove,
And spring adorns the earth no more.

AMERICA

1.
My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

2.
My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3.
Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees,
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4.
Our father's God, to Thee,
Aurthor of liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Week Full of Pleasures and Happy Surprises for the Seniors--- Eleven Graduates

The week was full of pleasures and happy surprises for the seniors. The juniors did themselves proud in the efforts put forth to give the senior class a good time and make their last week in the high school one never to be forgotten.

The first event was the junior-senior launch ride in the fine eight-oar barge built in the manual training shops of the school. The "eats" furnished for the occasion by the class filled mind and body with "reminders of good things," days to come. The memorable event—startling and happily not serious—was "man overboard," when Clarence Fifield, interested in "candy," lost his balance and got a "cold bath." He was tired and sober when the launch turned about and fished him out.

The commencement sermon to the graduates by Rev. Edward Berger was fine and appropriate to the times—one of the "most worth-while" addresses ever given in Coronado.

The senior class play, "The House Next Door," set a standard for classes that only to equal it is a laudable ambition. hTe play became the talk of the town and surprised the friends that such "actors" could appear on the stage and yet only seniors or juniors of the school.

The junior-senior banquet was held at Tent City. The juniors worked days to decorate and their taste and skill in this affair called forth exclamations of surprise and praise from every one for a remarkable success.

Friday, the great day of the seniors —graduation day—was begun with the faculty-senior-matutinal—i. e., a breakfast given by the faculty to the seniors. This was given in the porch-room of the school building and was a quiet, happy, but withal serious—last getting-together of teachers and seniors. It was a new thing here and will ever be remembered as a treasure in memory's casket.

The great event of commencement night was the wonderful address by Dr. Lincoln A. Ferris; subject, "The Quest." We think no graduating class this year has had the privilege of hearing a more remarkable and soul-gripping eloquent address. So inspiring and uplifting was it that no one could hear and drop back again to the same old plane of living. The dignity of man and his possibilties as depicted in the address put a new meaning to life and sent forth our senior class to activity with one of the most profound impressions of their school experience.

It must be noted with sincere regret that the community did not manifest a more decided interest in this affair by filling the house to the limit.

The community owes it to the young people to encourage them in such an event of their lives by being present to show their good will. Then they lost the opportunity of hearing one of the greatest orators on the Pacific slope.

The last act of the seniors as a class was to donate to the "Red Cross" the proceeds of their play—$35. May they have the true success in life and each fill his place faithfully and well as citizens of the greatest and noblest nation in the world.

The following received their diplomas:

Mr. Leland Johns, Mr. Minard Douglass Perrin, Mr. Sidney Sletto, Mr. John Pierce Sykes, Mr. Paul August Koppe, Miss Adell Eaton, Miss Mary Theodora Howe, Miss Bernice Marie Holt, Miss Esther Vandewater Berger, Mr. Albert Edward Madden, Mr. Clarence Chester Fifield.

Paul Koppe is the name of the handsome young man who is reading your water and light meter this time. Paul is a Coronado boy, and graduated from the high school last June.

Albert Madden and John Sykes left Sunday for Camp Taylor, Kentucky, to go into the Field Artillery officers' training camp. The boys took their examinations at Pacific Beach a few weeks ago, and received telegraphic instructions Friday to report at the camp at once.

Clarence Fifield left last Sunday for Berkeley, where he will study an engineering course. He graduated from the high school last June, and has been working in the city engineer's office this summer.

Minard D. Perrin, clerk in the Tent City office, who has greeted arrivals at the counter during the summer, also expects to enter the service, having received his certificate of admission to the training course for commissioned officers at Stanford University, which opens September 30. He will enlist with the status of cadet.

Miss Esther Berger of East San Diego has been the guest of school friends here several times since the schools have been closed. She is taking a post-graduate course in the San Diego hi this year.

Miss Anna Sletto, a teacher in the local schools, is spending the week in Los Angeles, the guest of her brother, Sydney Sletto, who is attending college there.

ORATORICAL HONORS

Chief Room Clerk Minard Douglass Perrin of the Tent City office was class speaker for the seniors at the graduation exercises of the Coronado High school Friday evening, June 21. His subject was "The School and Democracy," and in handling the theme Mr. Perrin displayed marked oratorical powers and breadth of thought which elicited much applause from the large and discriminating audience which filled the auditorium of the High school building.

Paul Koppe left last Sunday for Berkeley, to attend the university, to fit himself for entrance into the army. Paul completed his course at the high school here last June. His letters of recommendation to the university were fine. One, from his employer, accentuated Paul's "dependableness," which is a fine thing to be able to say about any boy.

John P. Sykes, Jr., has returned from Camp Taylor, Ky., where he was in training for the artillery, and is again domiciled under the parental roof. Johnny is looking fine and is fat and rosy-cheeked.

...O CORONADO HIGH GRIDDERS DISCHARGED

Albert Madden and John Sykes, both former Coronado high school football men, have just received their discharges from Camp Thackery Taylor, Ky., and are again in Coronado. Both men enlisted here four months ago in the artillery and went to an officers' training school.

Madden was captain and fullback of the Poppy City gridders, while Sykes held a line position on the squad.

Paul Koppe, who came home from school in the north for the Christmas holidays, left Monday for Borosbay, a potash plant in the desert, where he will work in the chemistry department.

Albert Madden has returned from Camp Zachary Taylor, Kentucky, and is working in the postoffice. Albert had three weeks to go before he would have received his "degree" as second lieutenant, but he decided that as long as the war was over, there was little chance for him to do much in the fighting line, and he didn't care to stay in the army during peace times. Another thing, it costs about two hundred bucks to outfit as a second lieut., and Albert says he needs the money for other things.
